PROGRAM IMPACT

In Q3 2026, Trial Training absorbed a record intake of 716 candidates (287 in September alone) while the training flow moved from RISE 3.0 to the new Training Tracker — and graduated 400 teachers, the programme's best quarter yet.

REASON FOR NOMINATION

- Delivery at scale — the three carried 44% of the programme's candidates and delivered 47% of its graduates: 186 of 400.
- Quality held under load — throughput 59% vs 52% and drop rate 17% vs 23% against the other five core mentors, with rubric scoring as strict as any mentor's (1–2% fail rates).
- Consistency through change — same-day to 2-day feedback on 532 of the 1,170 mock-session reviews written this quarter, and the highest mentee ratings surveyed on being essential to clearing the Final Trial.

Her session reviews are the most detailed in the team: ~200 words of ordered observation per class with the exact phrase to use next time. Mentees rate her 4.6/5.

Anuva delivered 57 graduates with zero candidates paused, alongside Implementation Review and Final Evaluation duties. Feedback reaches the candidate the same day as a numbered checklist to rehearse against. Highest mentee rating surveyed, 4.9/5; six of eight say they would likely have dropped without her.

Prachi delivered 61 graduates at the best efficiency in the core team (67%), with a 13% drop rate and only 3 mock fails in 101 candidates. Her reviews explain the why behind each correction and target the Cuemath shift to student-led learning. Mentees score her 4.8/5 on being essential to clearing.

COMMON IMPACT

The three ran the largest caseloads in the team through a quarter of process change and kept pass quality intact — the output is earned, not inflated. Between them only 19 mock fails across 315 candidates, against 49 team-wide. In their mentees' words: "I had a doubt two minutes before my first demo; she responded immediately" · "After my final trial she took 15 minutes just to ask what the problem was" · "Her reviews had the most minute detail done right" — together making 400 teachers Business Ready in JAS 2026.
